BOSTON BANK ASSISTED.

GLOBE NATIONAL TO BE TIDED OVER DIFFICULTIES DUE TO DE-CLINE IN STOCKS.

CLEARING HOUSE ASSOCIATION OF THAT CITY ISSUES $5,500,000 IN SPECIAL CERTIFI-

CATES FOR THE PURPOSE. Roston, Dec. 14.-At a meeting of the Boston Clearing House Association, representing the National banks of this city, to-day, it was voted to issue $3,500,000 in special Clearing House certificates enable the Globe National Bank to tide over the difficulties in its finances, which have existed for some time. It was announced at the Clearing House that the bank would thereby be able to centinue without further trouble.

The finances of the institution have been in unsatisfactory condition owing to unprofitable investeil and mining securities. The trouble first came to the surface early in November, when president Charles H. Cole resigned his position. several weeks his successor, H. H. Stevens d his assistants, have been endeavoring to place the bank on a firmer basis. It was found, however that a large amount of certain securities could not be disposed of readily, the stocks having steadily in value the last fortnight, and the matter was laid before the Clearing House Association, with the result that assistance was voted to-day.

The transactions which led to the present diffi-cuity of the bank were of considerable magnitude and they involved some heavy loans while Mr. cole was president, United States Oil and United States Mining and other bonds being taken as se curities. The loans were made when the stocks were selling at a good figure, but later prices beto fall. The directors called Mr. Cole's attenon to the unsatisfactory nature of the loans, and after some discussion President Cole resigned on November 6. His place was filled by Vice-President Stevens. When Mr. Cole's resignation was accepted it was with the understanding that he up the loans he had made. The process as been slow, and the recent sharp decline in the market caused uneasiness, which developed until day it prompted the Clearing House to assist the to-day it prompted the Clearing House to assist the bank. President Stevens, after the meeting of the Clearing House to-day, said: "The Globe National Bank is all right, and the fact that the Clearing House was willing to loan us $3.50,000 is sufficiently good proof that the bank is solvent. We have essources, in cash on hand, money owed us, securities and real property sufficient to pay every earl we owe."

e last report of the condition of the Globe Namal Hank, at the close of business December 2, bwed resources of $10.529,566 and liabilities, inching capital stock paid in $1,000.099; due to re banks, $1,97,281; due to State banks and individual deposits, subject to eas. $5,475,658.

makers $847,537, and individual deposits, subject to hecks $5.478,008.

The money situation and apprehension over the connection between several mining men and the globe National Bank, which was aided by the learing House Association to-day developed conderable excitement in the stock market. Some if the copper shares formed an object of attack and prices fell rapidly. Tamarack and Boston and fontang both were sold heavily. Block after block if Montana was thrown on the market, mainly long tock, until the price sagged to 259, a decline of $25 share from the opening, Montana afterward allied somewhat. Arcadian, Parroit and the other oppers suffered in a less degree. United States il fell to 25; United States Mining, one of the globe hank stocks, fluctuated only a few points, egaining its losses.

oil fell to 25; United States Mining, one of the Globe bank stocks, fluctuated only a few points, regaining its losses.

It is generally considered that by its action the Clearing House management averted a panic, as the tying up of about $8,000,000 of deposits would have been a serious thing. By to-day's vote the assets of the Globe Bank will be turned over to the Clearing House. It is improbable that any loss will be incurred by the banks concurring in that vote, but the method taken insures that if there is any such loss it will be subdivided among so many that the share of each will be insignificant. The vote taken by the Clearing House was as follows: "Voted that the Clearing House Committee he authorized and directed to make a special issue of $2,500,000 of Clearing House certificates or any part thereof to the Globe National Bank, bearing interest at the rate of $1.00 per cent, against a pledge of such assets of the Globe National Bank as may be deemed best by the committee, and that all of the banks in the Clearing House agree to share and share alike in proportion to capital and surplus in any loss that may result therefrom."

The local correspondents of the Globe Nationa Bank of Boston are the National Bank of North America, the National City Bank and the Hanover National Bank Warner Van Norden, president of the National Bank of North America, in which the Globe National keeps its active New-York account, Globe National keeps its active New-York account, said yesterday that the Boston institution had a fair amount of cash to its credit in his bank. Officers of the Hanover and National City banks said that the business done by their banks for the Globe National at no time amounted to much.

As to that part of the Boston dispatch referring to the heavy decline in mining stocks following the news of the Globe National Bank's trouble, it was said on good authority yesterday afternoon in Wall Street that the Amalgamated Copper Company had been a large purchaser of copper shares on the decline in Boston, and that in particular it had been a large purchaser of copper shares on the de-cline in Boston, and that in particular it had bought a big block of Boston and Montana, suffi-cient, it was declared, to give it control of that great copper property which adjoins the Ana-conda mine, at Butte, Mont. Boston and Montana has sold as high as $388 a share since the first of this year. Yesterday, according to the Boston ad-vices, it touched $250, closing at $258 bid, $290 asked. Amalgamated Copper broke to 774 on this market and closed at 78 bid, 78½ asked, against 79½ bid, 80 asked, at the close on Wednesday.

MEETING OF BANKERS.

REPORT THAT NEW-YORK MONEY HAS BEEN LOANED ON BOSTON AND MONTANA.

Boston, Dec. 14.—A meeting of bankers and brokers was held this evening to take steps toward protecting the interests of the United States Mining Company, whose stock is largely held as se the Globe National Bank. It was stated that the other banks will cease to call their loans on these securities for a while, and it was agreed that a pool should be formed to protect the stock Another conference will be held to-morrow.

Another conference will be held to-morrow.

H. H. Rogers, of the Sfändard Oil Company, is probably the largest owner of Boston and Montana, next to A. S. Bigelow, and it is understood that the so-called Standard Oil interest in copers will give all assistance possible.

It is reported that for the moment about $1,600,000 in New-York money is to be loaned on Boston and Montana, which has been carried in New-England. With $3,90,000 of Standard money for Boston and Montana interests, and $2,500,000 of Clearing House certificates for the Globe National Bank, the situation must be considerably improved.

THE STORAGE POWER COMPANY.

In an article printed yesterday about the Storage Power Company, of which Dr. W. Seward Webb is president, an error was made in giving the amount of capital stock. The company is capitalized at $600,000, there being one hundred thousand shares of a par value of $50, full paid and non-assessable. The vice-president of the company is Henry L. Sprague and the secretary and treasurer is Edward Barr. Superheated water is the storage power me-

MISHAPS TO TWO NORTON LINERS.

A streak of ill luck seems to be pursuing Norton Line steamers just at present. The Mashons, of this line, was seized by a British man-of-war and taken to Cape Town the other day, the Buceros took fire in the Eric Basin a short time ago, and Yesterday the Manica and the Heathdene both came into port with tales of distress. The Heathdene, which is from Calcutta, by way of the Suez Canal and St. Michaels, discovered fire in her bunk-November 13, when ninety-six miles west of St. Michaels, and was forced to put back. After six days of fire fighting the blaze was extin-Ruished, but part of the cargo had to be jettlsoned and the remainder received more or less damage.

The Manica, from Shields, broke her tunnel shaft in a gale on December 2, in latitude 48:15 and longitude 41:20, and, although the Albano, a German steamer, took her in tow a short time afterward, the hawser broke in an hour, and the Manica was left adrift and helpless. On December 3, after hard labor on the part of the engineers, the break was repaired, and the Manica went slowly ahead. She

URGE DR. PURVES TO DECLINE.

HIS PRINCETON CONGREGATION WOULD HAVE HIM REMAIN THERE.

Princeton N J Dec 14 (Special) -A meeting of the members of the First Presbyterian Church was held last night for the purpose of passing resolu-tions to express to the Rev. Dr. George T. Purves. the pastor, their affection and loyalty, and to urge him not to accept the call to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church in New-York, but to continue to be their pastor. Dr. J. H. Wikoff, Dr. Purves's medical adviser, and the president of the Board of Trustees, addressed the meeting previous to the passing of the resolutions. He said:

Should Dr. Purves accept this call and go to New-York, he would save one thurch to Presby-terianism at the risk of his health. Should he stay here and continue his relations to the seminary, he would save Presbyterianism to the whole country. The resolutions were unanimously adopted. They say that, without intending in the least degree to minimize the importance and influence of the position to which Dr. Purves is called as the pastor of the leading Presbyterian church in the greatest city of the country, the congregation would nevertheless express its feeling that the field which had now occupies in Princeton, with its intimate relations to the seminary and to the university, is one of no less importance and far reaching influence for good, and, moreover, is one in which his physical endurance can be hetter conserved, and with greater probability of long continued usefulness, than in a large city pastorate.

A prominent member of the Board of Trustees said last night to The Tribune correspondent that Dr. Purves had refused an invitation to preach at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church one Sunday last month. He also remarked that he had been informed that a committee from the leading church of Yokohama, Japan, was now on its way to America to try to persuade Dr. Purves to accept the pastorate of that church. Every possible effort will be made to retain Dr. Purves in Princeton. say that, without intending in the least degree to BURGLARS CRACK THE SAFE WITHIN TWENT! FEET OF WHERE JAIL WATCHMEN PATROL White Plains, N. Y., Dec. 14 (Special).-The most daring burglary committed in this place for a long while took place last night almost beneath the shadow of the Sheriff's office and County Jail. Directly opposite the jail and county buildings is the White Plains high school in Court-st. There are five watchmen who patrol all night and guard any attempt to interfere with the jail, which contains one hundred and twenty-five prisoners. The watchmen pass right by the high school building. Some time last night burgh, s entered the school by cutting a pane of glass in one of the windows op-posite the County Jali. They ransacked the desks in the classrooms, strewing their contents all over. Professor S. R. Shear, Superintendent of Schools, has a private office in the high school building. The office is just opposite the Sheriff's office. The door to the Superintendent's office is kept locked. The burgiars in order to get into the office removed one of the large panes of plate glass in the door and passed through the opening. They nearly demolished the Superintendent's desk. The safe was forced open and thoroughly ransacked. There was no money in it last night. The burgiary was discovered when the janitor entered the building at 5 o'clock this morning.

Not a sound was heard by the men on duty in the Sheriff's office, in the county buildings or around the jail. The watchmen passed within twenty feet of the Superintendent's office in the high school building. An investigation satisfied the authorities that the work was done by professional cracksmen who thought the safe contained the $40,000 school money which Tax Collector Snedeker had placed on deposit in the Central Bank. SPANISH WAR VETERANS REORGANIZE.

GENERAL HEULINGS, OF PENNSYLVANIA, MADE

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 14 (Special).—There was a reorganization in this city to-day of the Spanish American War Veterans' Association. The organization obtained a charter early in the day, the erporators being Colonel James B. Coryell, of Philadelphia: Lieutenant T. W. Trainor, of Mis-sissippi; Lieutenant William E. Pedrick and Lieutenant John W. Stevens, of Trenton, and Lieutenant A. Christopher Siler, of Philadelphia. The following officers were elected: Commander in following officers were elected: Commander in Chief, General Willis J. Heulings of Pennsylvania; vice-commander, Colonel James B. Coryell, of Pennsylvania; adjutant general, William Christopher, of Pennsylvania; adjutant general, William Christopher, of Pennsylvania; quartermaster, Colonel Edward W. Hine, of New-Jersey; inspector, Colonel George W. Taylor, of Virginia; judge advocate, Colonel R. M. Townsend, of New-York; signal officer, Colonel James B. Tyfee, of Tennessee; chaplain, the Rev. H. Jones, of New-Jersey. Colonel Q. O. Gilmore will be appointed department commander for New-Jersey.

A Geneva cross with a wreath has been selected as the badge. The association was reorganized in order to exclude politics, which, it was alleged to-day, was largely the object of the first organization.

PRESSED STEEL CAR COMPANY'S AFFAIRS. Charles T. Schoen, president of the Pressed Steel Company, made a statement last night in regard to that corporation's affairs. He said:

Car Company, made a statement last hight in regard to that corporation's affairs. He said:

The Board of Directors has declared the usual quarerly dividend of 14; per cent on the preferred stock of the company. What they have to say regarding dividends on the common stock will be said at their January meeting, as the laws of New-Jersey make it obligatory to wait until the close of the fiscal year. December 31, before action can be legally taken. I can say, however, that a sum largely in excess of the amount necessary to pay a dividend on the common stock has been earned, and that the sentiment of the members of the Board as expressed at the meeting is unantmous with regard to the declaration of a dividend after the close of the fiscal year. December 31.

We have not been able to take all the work offered us, because the Carnegie Steel Company has been delayed in the completion of its new plant, which they have been erecting for the last year, so as to take care of the contracts which we have with them. This Carnegie plant cost $4.500,000, and is capable of furnishing thirty thousand tons of steel plate a month, which is our requirement. Our new plant is now completed, so that our output of finished work during the present month and thereafter should average from $2.500,000 to $3.000,000 a month.

As an assurance that we will have plenty of work for the future we have on our books at this time nearly $20,000,000 of orders with which to begin the new year, all of which we have scheduled to be done by June next.

A CHANGE IN SENTIMENT TOWARD THE BROOKLYN CLUB-STILL DISCUSS-ING THE CHANCES FOR AN > EIGHT CLUB LEAGUE-REG-ULAR MEETING OF THE LEAGUE YET TO BE HELD.

Bushwhacking tactics were continued again at he convention of the club owners of the National Baseball League at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterthe city since Monday, and many of them for a week, and yet the regular meeting of the League is yet to be held. More than six hours were de-voted yesterday to another session of the Board of Directors, and when the meeting adjourned last night the only information given out was that the session this morning would be devoted to another meeting of the Arbitration Committee, and that ossibly the League proper might meet in the

A second session of the Arbitration Committee is an unusual proceeding, and it may mean much, and again it may mean little. There was a posi-tive change in the sentiment of many of the club owners toward the Brooklyr and Baltimore clubs. Up to last night it seemed to be the general opin-ion that the less fortunate owners could not conceive of any punishment too severe to be dealt out to the Brooklyn Club because it dared to win the championship. It was said that the directors might conclude that a $500 fine would be sufficient to inflict upon the club because of its action in the Wrigley case, and again, that they have decided to refer the whole Wrigley-New-York-Brook-lyn fracas back to the Board of Arbitration for adjustment. Until last night the other club owners had passed the Brooklyn men by without recognition. Last night several conferences were held between the opposing factions, which seemed to indicate that the hostile feeling toward the pennant winners had subsided materially.

Instead of the present director of the New-York Club running affairs, it is beginning to look as if the Brooklyn magnates may hold the whip before the convention is over. It is the undoubted desire of all that the circuit be reduced from twelve to Announcement was made that the Louisville, Cleveland and Washington clubs were ready to retire, and that the amounts to be paid to those cities had been agreed upon. Brooklyn will dispose of its holdings in Baltimore for, say $40,000. If that sum is paid over the scheme for a reduction of the circuit may be carried out. If

Some are of the opinion that in case the Senators and Orioles drop and Kingwood sprinted away in front from the out, both will be found in the Eastern League next season, which would mean that Louisville, and posseason, which would mean that Adultsville, and possibly Cleveland, might become members of the Western League. "Buck" Ewing, who is spoken of as the possible new manager of the New York club, did not see any of the directors of the local club. At the meeting of the Board of Arbitration to-day changes in the National agreement may be made which will preclude any chance of further squabbles of the Wrigley sort.

"We are not worrying a particle," said F. A. Abel, of the Brooklyn club. "We are not fording rivers until we get to them. Officially my friends and myself know nothing of what has been going on for the last four days." Another of the club owners expressed himself as follows: "I came here as did many of the others, ready to forget the old fights and individual differences. We have wiped off the slate and will start all over again."

SMITH, THRESHIE AND KELLOGG TIED FOR THE CLASS B AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP.

At the end of yesterday's games in the Class B mateur championship billiard tournament at the Knickerbocker Athletic Club Theatre there were three players tied for the title, and the final games to-day and to-morrow will furnish plenty of ex-citement. J. De Mun Smith, of St. Louis; Charles Threshie, of Boston, and W. W. Kellogg, of Chicago, have each won three games without losing one, and Kellogg will meet both of the others to-day. Smith in the afternoon and Threshie in the The final game between Smith and Threshie will be played to-morrow night.

Yesterday afternoon Kellogg beat Hevner by 300 o 137 in a fast game. The Westerner started off at a furious pace, gathering in 41 and 49 in his points for the greater part of the game, and in the last ten innings forged even further ahead, and ran out the game in his fortleth with an average of fust 745. His best runs were 49, 41, 25 and 25. Heverer averaged 2 25-39, and his highest runs were 20, 16, 13 and 13.

Only one game was played in the evening, the two Boston representatives coming together in an interesting game that showed Threshie at his best. Cutler kept a few points ahead throughout the first part of the game, but Threshie put in a run of 55 in his twenty-fifth inning that put him in the lead and from this point he forged steadily ahead till the end, when he ran out the game in his thirty-fifth inning, the final score being 300 to 221 in his favor. The winner's average was 8 20-25, and his best runs 56, 55, 32 and 27, while Cutler made runs of 27, 27, 24 and 15, and averaged 5 11-35. Wilson B. Foss, the Class A amateur expert, referreed this game.

Stark finally won by 300 to 243, his average being 525-55, and his best runs 25, 25, 18, 17 and 16. Poggenburg averaged only 427-54, with runs of 25, 25, 25, 24 and 25 to his credit. The feature of the game was Poggenburg's run of 81 points in three innings, but even this was not enough to win for him. Stark will meet Keeney to-night in the final game, and a victory for him will make the two a tie for first prize. If Keeney wins, the premier honors go to him. Townsend is in third place, with Poggenburg and Muldauer tied one game below him.

having been kept in enforced retirement since Monday, owing to rain and mud, a good as-semblage of harness horses and their owners put in an appearance at Speedway Park yesterday afterhad dried out so that the going was fairly good north of Washington Bridge, Several high class brushes occurred late in the day, J. A. Blaurock's speedy trotter Kingwood (2:17%) figured prominently start, leading all the way by two or three lengths. Shortly after this encounter he outfooted the big chestnut pacing mare Nutvina (2:244), formerly owned by Charles Welland. George A. Coleman drove her yesterday. She proved to be no match tween E. E. Bronk's new trotter Pilot ney, with Julius Ruff's big bay pacer Rolling Motion out in front of both trotters. At the end of half a mile Rolling Motion was three lengths or more ahead of Pilot Chimes, with Percy two lengths further back. From this point to the bridge Mr. Hronk's trotter gained rapidly on the pacer, and seemed to be on even terms with him at the finish. Pilot Chimes is a newcomer on the road, and is known to few horsemen. He was formerly called Clint Carty, and is a grandson of Chimes (2:2054), the sire of The Abbott (2:0043). It is said that he gained a record below 2:20 this year. With the moon shining brightly in the eastern sky, just before 5 o'clock, Pilot Chimes had an exciting tussle with John F. Cockerill's noted double team trotter Honor Bright (2:2839), by Antonio. Both horses were in fine form, and they covered the ground at a rate of speed not often surpassed on the Speedway. Pilot Chimes got his nose in front almost at the start, and the mare could never quite head him in the race for the bridge. for the bridge.

INTERNATIONAL RIFLE SHOOTING. CONTESTS ARRANGED FOR A NEW CHALLENGE

Franklin, Penn., Dec. 14.-An International shootng contest between teams representing American volunteer soldiers and English volunteers has been arranged by General Willis J. Hulings, who was colonel of the 18th Pennsylvania Regiment in the Spanish war. He has just returned from Europe, where he attended to all the preliminaries. The first contest will be between a team of the Queen's Westminster Volunteers, of London, and one selected by General Hulings from his former command, the 16th Pennsylvania, and the time has been set for next June in London.

The trophy will be presented by Thomas R. De-The trophy will be presented by Thomas R. Dewar, as a perpetual challenge cup. Mr. Dewar in tendering the cup stipulates only that it shall be shot for by regimental teams of Great Britain and the colonies and the United States, the cup to be held by the winners until defeated, the shooting to take place in the country where the cup is held. In case more than one regiment wishes to challenge the same year, a home contest is to be held to decide who shall have the honor of challenging. General Hulings in discussing the coming match said. "It is to be a rifle shooting match, six men on each side, service rifles to be used, and the target distance to be 200, 500 and 600 yards."

CYCLING.

ARRANGING FOR THE CYCLE-AUTOMO BILE SHOW AT THE GARDEN-SOME INTEREST IN WHAT POSITION

LOCAL L. A. W. OFFICIALS WILL TAKE IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS

It is impossible at this time to give any details of the innovations in bicycles which will be seen at the coming cycle show at Madison Square Garden from January 20 to 27. The promis nent manufacturers who will have conspicuous booths at the exhibition say little regarding the new features on their wheels. The display of automobiles and motor cycles is sure to be large, and, it is said, many of these machines will be shown in motion in the basement of the building. As was the case at the recent English shows, the As was the case at the recent English shows, the riders will probably pay particularly close attention to the free wheel accessories which will be shown. This device has not been adopted as yet on the chainless wheel, but there will be several with them shown at the coming exhibition. There is sure to be some striking changes in the general style and make up of the wheels to be shown by several of the large makers. Smaller tubing is bound to prevail, and there is a positive tendency for lights wheels. The centre of the main floor will be given up almost entirely to bicycles, only fourteen spaces being reserved for automobiles: It was announced yesterday that every space at the Garden had been taken.

There has been considerable speculation and much wild guessing as to what position the New-York Division of the League of American Wheelmen would take regarding National issues which will come up for discussion at the annual assembly at Philadelphia in February. In talking about the political situation yesterday a prominent official of the division said: "Nobody has been authorized to say what the division will do, for the simple reason that the officials have not discussed Nareason that the officials have not discussed vartional affairs at all, and they will not do so until the division holds its meeting in this city on Saturday night. There is no truth in the insimuations that the division officers are dissatisfied with the administration, and that the vote of the State has been promised to Conway W. Sams, of Maryland, who is referred to as a likely candidate for the presidency. We have not discussed any presidential or any other National issues at this time.

CYCLE RACING IN BROOKLYN.

The first attempt at outlaw cycle racing in an armory was made at the 13th Regiment Armory, in Brooklyn, last night. The contests were held under the auspices of one of the companies. The attendance was poor, and there was nothing done of particular interest in a racing way. Summaries:

AMATEURS BOX IN NEW-JERSEY.

The preliminary amateur boxing bouts of the 4th Regiment, N. G., N. J., were held at the armory, Bergen-ave, and Church-st., last night before a large gathering of spectators. There was a large amount of slugging and some knockouts. FOOTBALL.

TIGERS ENJOY A SMOKER AT THE PRINCE. TON INN. Princeton, N. J. Dec. 14—A football smoker was given in honor of the members of the Princeton football team to-night at Princeton Inn by the undergraduates in place of the regular banquet, which has been postponed until after Christmas. A gold watch was presented to ex-Captain Edwards, a silver loving cup to Arthur Poe and a Bible to Reiter, the gifts of the undergraduates. Speeches were made by Edwards, Pell, Reiter, Poe, Hillerbrand and others.

FRESH TRADE DEVELOPMENTS. A great deal of capital from the United States is being invested in coffee and rubber plantations in Southern Mexico, according to the American Consul at Matamoras. Sugar plantations on the Pafor investment. Mining interests in Mexico have long had a great attraction for United States money, and many fortunes are now being made in this way. A particularly good opportunity is said to be afforded by the orange and sugar haciendar in the irrigated districts of the northern States In the irrigated districts of the northern States, These properties are valuable because of their low market price and the abundance of water there, and also because they are situated below the frost belt. The Consul declares that a Mexican law forbids the holding of property by foreigners within sixty miles of the frontier. But he adds that when requests to do so are properly presented to the Government lave can be obtained.

A long, thin sea grass, found in large quantities on the flats of the lower St. Lawrence, especially on the south shore of Gaspe and Bonaventura bays, is said to make good material for carriage cush lons and other upholstery. When dried it is strong, curly and elastic. A considerable amount of it is being sent to Chicago and Cincinnati, and its average price in those cities is $25 a ton. It is believe that as soon as this stuff becomes known in t East it will prove equally popular here.

The American Consul at Nagasaki says that Japan imports about two million pounds of sole leather a year, and gets a triffe over one-half from this country. But he believes that America could have almost a monopoly of the trade if she wanted it. Those desiring to engage in the business are advised to write to the American Trading Company, the China and Japan Trading Company, the China and Japan Trading Company, Limited, and Jardine, Matheson & Co., of Yokohama, Kobe and Nagasaki.

Graphite is being mined near Cranston, R. I., and some parts of the deposit yield an ore with from 52 to 58 per cent of graphite.

Some tests of British and American tools were recently conducted in Australia in this manner: Rival teams of workmen were equipped with the products of different countries and given a certain-amount of work to perform. There were chopping, filing and sawing contests. The men did not know whose tools they were using. Indianapolis crossout-saws, Knoxville axe handles, Philadelphia files and. English axe blades won.

It is predicted the souvenir spoon craze, which raged a few years ago, is to de equalled by the popularity of souvenir pins. The fashion was started by Louisiana jewellers, who offered a prize for the best design.

From Anderson, Ind., a chain of local trolley roads has been formed that affords a route thirtyfour miles long, not counting numerous branches to towns off the main line. Another chain is about to be formed between Anderson and Indianapolis, thirty-five miles in length. The whole system, in-cluding local lines, embraces 133 miles.

"'Electricity" says: "It has taken some time to educate the Buffalo manufacturers to the use electricity, but that electric power from Niagara is slowly but surely supplanting steam in that city in spite of the low price of fuel there is not the slightest doubt. Three years ago but 1,000 horsepower was being utilized, and that for the running of streetcars, whereas at the present time over 11,000 is being made use of in operating grain ele-vators, in the moving of cranes, in the grinding of wheat the running of sewing machines and for operating machinery in numerous other lines of manufacture and industry."
